

Autumn Harrison

(423) 413-8565
theautumnleaves410@gmail.com

Highly skilled problem solver with proficient experience identifying key issues and logically generating solutions. A reliable individual who produces quality work on time and efficiently—a quick learner with experience working with technology and programming languages.

EDUCATION

East Tennessee State University, 1276 Gilbreath Dr — Bachelor in Computing

AUGUST 2022 - PRESENT

Chattanooga Girls Leadership Academy, 1802 Bailey Ave — High-School Diploma

AUGUST 2016 - MAY 2022

ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

Project Bravo — Database Construction

- Worked in individual groups along with the entirety of the cohort to design, code, and implement a functional database for the Blue Sky Institute
- Crucial Phase 1 complete and finished project continues to progress

BCBST Annual Hackathon 2023 — Design Challenge

- Participated in BCBST's design challenge, divided into groups to address and implement ideas corresponding with the BCBST vision and mission statement
- Won an award and was able to design a finished phone application

Outplay Gaming Dev — Client Website

- Worked in a small group and a client to design and implement an interactive website for their gaming business
- Stood out as best project and finished design left client satisfied

INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE

BCBST, 1 Cameron Hill Circle — Computing Intern

JANUARY 2024 - DECEMBER 2024

- Completed EIT rotations, working with programming languages

SKILLS

Creative & Critical Thinking

Interpretation & Communication

Problem-Solving

Web Programming

Technical Proficiencies

Project Leader/Manager

AWARDS

ETSU BCBST Foundation Computing Scholarship is a last-dollar scholarship covering the final costs of tuition, books, etc.

Fall 2022-Fall 2024 ETSU Dean's List I obtained a grade point average qualifying me for inclusion in the dean's list.

BCBST & Blue Sky HACKATHON 2023 Best Pitch Award is an award for the best-performed presentation

LANGUAGES

English